VISITING ARTIST: TODD CAMP—GELLI PLATE PRINTING NEW!

Wednesday, Aug. 21, 10 a.m.—noon OR 1—3 p.m. Register for one only.

Set your imagination free and join accomplished artist and educator Todd Camp on a fun-filled art making process called Gelli plate printing. This printmaking process uses acrylic paint, stencils, papers, and mark making techniques to create one-of-a-kind pieces of art. You will create on paper that you can take with you. Camp's formal studies at the Columbus College of Art & Design began in 1985 where he earned a B.F.A. with Honors. After graduation, Todd began an extraordinary teaching career in Community Arts that has lasted over 30 years. His innovative style for encouraging students beyond their limits has contributed to the enhancement of thousands of students' lives over the course of his tenure. Todd's award winning paintings, drawings, and clay, adorn numerous regional, national and international corporate & private collections while his limited edition prints are distributed worldwide. His unique wax paintings and illuminated sculpture have been featured in galleries, PBS Broad & High, and HGTV and a recent painting was presented to the Mayor of Dresden, Germany by Columbus Mayor, Andrew Ginther. Camp serves as juror, lecturer, curator and in visiting artist roles across the state. Currently, he is the Assistant Arts Administrator at the Priscilla R. Tyson Cultural Arts Center, Columbus. Register by Friday, Aug. 16.

Art Groups

PAINTING GROUP
Mondays, 1–4 p.m.

Come and bring your supplies to paint or draw with other members as you share tips, tricks, and inspiration. Watch for monthly painting videos to inspire techniques and ideas!

CREATIVE WRITING: NEW TO CREATIVE WRITING

Mondays, July 15, Aug. 12, Sept. 9, 2:15–4:15 p.m.

Join Joan Pearse to experience creative writing exercises in class and sharing with other writers. If you are new to class, please contact Joan at joan@MySourcePoint.org to get the most current writing prompts as this group is ongoing.

CREATIVE WRITING: CONTINUING

Mondays, July 29, Aug. 19, Sept. 23, 2:15–4:15 p.m.

Share your writing with others in a welcoming community. Fellow writers share positive, constructive feedback. Writing prompts are shared in class and for writing at home by Instructor Joan Pearse. Previous writing experience recommended. If you are new to the group, contact Joan Pearse for the homework prompts at 740-203-2410 or joan@MySourcePoint.org. Creative writing has been shown to improve emotional and mental well-being. Through creative writing, we can gain insight into our emotions, develop self-expression and communication skills, cultivate empathy and understanding of others, and boost our imagination and creativity.

Monday, Sept. 9, 16, 23 and 30, 12:30–3:30 p.m.

Interact with fellow experienced carvers of varying levels while creating either a decorative spoon or study sticks of human facial characteristics to enhance your technical skills. Class will be facilitated by Keith Radick. Students will choose on the first day from two options. Option 1: Choose from seven original designs and learn to carve a decorative spoon. Blanks will be basswood; however, a limited few more exotic woods may be available. As this is an advanced class, carvers are expected to provide their own tools and personal protective equipment, including protective gloves. Basswood blanks are an additional $30 each, payable to the instructor.

Option 2: Study the basics of facial proportions and individual element details. Create two study sticks, one of a full human face and another of individual components such as eyes, nose, mouth, and ears. Basswood blanks are an additional $10 for two, payable to the instructor. Prerequisites for this class are completion of the SourcePoint Basic and Intermediate carving classes. Any exceptions will be on a case-by-case basis at the sole discretion of the instructor. Fee: $30 for four sessions, not
